

Teen Newsletter

authored & edited by the Teen Advisory Board

Teen Advisory Board (TAB) is an exclusive group (not true, you could join too! any time!) of dedicated library volunteers who meet every other Tuesday from 5-6 to tell Nike how to do her job (jk Nike we love you). When not discussing how hard Spanish honors is, these 10-12th graders plan activities, collaborate on this newsletter and debate government inefficiency. We hope to see you soon >:) Thx for reading.

WADDUP NERDS!

We are gathering to summon a demon (and plan sessions and learn how to dungeon master)

SATURDAY, MAY 10

Because I'm sick of hearing 'man I wanna play dnd so baaadddd,' and Nike is too. Join us from 10:30-1 if you dare

Get Curious!

There are so many new non-fiction titles, check 'em out! And if there's something you can't find, suggest a book or just a topic, we're always taking suggestions!

Are you maybe curious about... Geeky Lego Crafts? or, maybe American history? Try America Redux, Visual Stories from our Dynamic History. Whattabout the cutest Enchanting Anime Beasties, or maybe the Autistic Comics Anthology?

ADHD, Autism, and Dyslexia

On March 4th, Lyme-Old Lyme High School senior Chase Calderon gave a wonderful presentation on living with ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder), Autism Spectrum Disorder, and Dyslexia, speaking from both personal experience as well as that of his peers. Chase's insight was both enlightening and inspirational, and his advice resonated with parents and students in the audience who struggle with these learning disorders.

Chase's presentation comprised part of his high school senior project, and we speak for all who attended when we say that we are fortunate to have been a part of his journey. Thank you, Chase!

WOOT WOOT! Library Fun Awards!

In 2020, two seventh graders hosted an awards ceremony for Library Staff and the "Library Fun Awards" was born! With that spirit in mind, every newsletter will highlight a member of the Old Lyme library community for their positive and touching impact<333333333333333333333333

If you're lucky enough to see him, Zeke is always a calm presence among the chaos. He is a considerate listener and easy to talk to, even if you've just met! Also, he always has a solid book, movie, or tv show to recommend. Whimsical, clever, fun, welcoming, and a friend to all- we're so lucky to have Zeke around! (When he's actually around and not skipping DND.) Condragulations to the friendliest henny around!

What did the tree say to Spring?

What a re-leaf.
